

Using German for Research in STEM

You can visit these German sites using either German or English. Most sites have a button at the top where you can click on English or Deutsch (or the appropriate flag)

Learning about German research

If your German is fairly advanced, try this exciting site:

<http://www.forschungsexpedition.de/>

Germany's Year of Science site. Full of exciting new research. The addresses below are part of this site, and should interest you.

http://www.forschungsexpedition.de/generator/wj2009/de/04\_Expeditionsbericht/Expeditionsbericht\_20Suchen.sc=5924.html (short reports in German for young Germans)

http://www.forschungsexpedition.de/generator/wj2009/de/05\_Wettbewerbe/00\_20Wettbewerbe.html?conversationContext=jau Check out contest winners in Germany

<http://www.bosch-stiftung.de/content/language2/html/22190.asp>

If you want to access the above material (Germany's Year of Science site) in English:

<http://www.bosch-stiftung.de/content/language2/html/1485.asp>

Study Trips & Travel for Scientists

<http://www.bosch-stiftung.de/content/language1/html/index.asp>

The Robert Bosch Foundation sponsors various programs in the sciences. You can click on Deutsch or English as you surf this site.

http://www.germany.info/Vertretung/usa/en/07\_Economy/04\_Science/00\_Science.html

German Embassy's site about science in Germany

<https://www.jugend-forscht.de/>

Germany's equivalent of programs like Intel, science fairs, etc.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Jugend\_forscht (An article in English Wikipedia about Jugend forscht)

<http://www.daad.de/rise/en/>

Summer internships in German for US undergrad students in biology, chemistry, physics, earth sciences, engineering

Try these science / research groups famous in Germany

<http://www.fraunhofer.de/index.jsp>

<http://www.dlr.de/>

Germany's equivalent of NASA

<http://www.mpg.de/>

Max Planck Institute: major German research center

German Science presented in Entertaining Ways:

<http://www.deutsches-museum.de/>

Largest science / technology museum in the world. Check out its exhibits

<http://www.sdtb.de/English.122.0.html>

Technical Museum in Berlin

German Science on TV

Wissen macht ah <http://www.wdr.de/tv/wissenschafftah/> Click on Sendungen /letzte Sendung or Archiv, & you can watch these science programs for German kids.

Quarks & Co: <http://www.wdr.de/tv/quarks/> Click on Sendung or Archiv to watch a program here. The German here is more advanced.

Science Sites for Children in Germany

<http://www.blinde-kuh.de/kinderseiten/>

Roll herunter und finde einige Webseiten, die mit Wissenschaft zu tun haben. (Umwelt, Tiere, Wissen, Technik, usw.)

Scroll down, and find some sites having to do with sciences (environment, animals, knowledge, technical, etc.)

<http://www.zdf.de/ZDFxt/module/space/start.html>

Try this site – space travel